

Coming?

The Church needs at least 30-40 additional workers every year.

PLAN NOW

to study at

THE UNITED CHURCH TRAINING SCHOOL

The United Church Training School, Toronto, is the national school for training young women for the work of The United Church of Canada. Students come from all parts of Canada to receive preparation for all phases of Church Work except the ministry. Missionary doctors are not required to attend the United Church Training School. Travelling expenses to the Training School are met for students outside Ontario.
